Meet Dr. Hideo Tanaka, (1)whom I have known for a very long time. In fact, he has lived longer than most people. He is 104 years old! Dr. Tanaka has advice for people who want to live a long life. He wrote a book on the topic that more than 1 million people have read.

People who live a long life usually do not eat very much, he says. Dr. Tanaka, (2)whose daily breakfast is only milk and coffee, never eats too much. His dinner, which includes fish and vegetables, is also very healthy.

Dr. Tanaka, who never stopped working, thinks that people should stay busy. He still works at St. Mary's Hospital, which treats sick children. (3)Without a job that keeps you busy, you might feel bored and lonely. Staying (4)active is a key to long life.

The good doctor always takes the stairs and carries his own things. A little exercise that keeps the muscles in shape is another key to long life. You don't need a lot of exercise, but you should stay (4)active.

Listen to the doctor! His advice, which is easy to follow, can help you live a long life.

【a】 Soon after Dave left college, one of his uncles, who was rich and had no children of his own, died and left Dave a lot of money, so he decided to set up his own real estate company.

He found a nice office, bought some new furniture and moved in. He had only been there for a few hours when he heard someone coming towards the door of his office.

“It’s my first customer!” he thought. He quickly picked up the telephone and pretended to be very busy answering an important call from someone in New York who wanted to buy a big and expensive house in the country.

The man knocked at the door while this was going on, came in and waited politely for the company owner to finish his conversation. Then he said to him, “I’m from the telephone company, and I was sent here to connect your telephone.”

【注】 real estate company 「不動産会社」

[b] An old gentleman was very unhappy about modern education, and thought that young people nowadays were not being taught the importance of knowing (1)the difference between right and wrong.

One day he was taking a walk in the park near his home when he saw some young boys standing around a small cat. The old gentleman went up to the boys and asked them what was happening. One of the boys said to him, "We're having a contest. We're telling lies, and the one who tells the biggest one gets to keep the cat."

The old gentleman thought that this was a good opportunity to teach the boys a useful lesson, so he said to them, "I've never told a lie in my life." All at once there was a great shout from all the boys, and they said, "You've won! You can take the cat!"
